SCOTT DOFFEK

HEAD COACH

16th season

Scott Doffek, the 2013 Wisconsin Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year and two-time Horizon League Coach of the Year, enters his 16th year as the head coach of the Milwaukee Panthers in 2022. A mainstay in the MKE baseball program, Doffek enters his 28th season with the Milwaukee coaching staff after spending the first 12 of those years as the assistant head coach.

Doffek became just the second coach in program history to top 300 career wins in 2017, becoming the program leader with victory No. 348 in March of 2019. Milwaukee has also seen national success under Doffek as 23 Panthers have been drafted to the MLB. In fact, Doffek has now coached a list of 46 players that have been either drafted or signed by professional teams.

Last spring, the Panthers posted a runner-up finish in the Horizon League Tournament for the second time in as many chances. Three pitchers earned league recognition led by AJ Blubaugh, who was named Horizon League Reliever of the Year. Milwaukee totaled 22 victories and debuted its new home ballpark, Franklin Field, with a four-game sweep of Purdue Fort Wayne in the inaugural series.

The Panthers posted a runner-up finish in the Horizon League regular season and tournament in 2019, finishing in the Top 25 in the NCAA in numerous categories, including batting average, hits, doubles and runs-per-game. Two players – Jake Sommers (Round 10/St. Louis) and Trevor Schwecke (Round 13/Toronto) – were selected in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft.

He added 26 wins to his career total in 2018, with his team coming up one victory short of a spot in the Horizon League Tournament title game. Seven players earned postseason league honors and Austin Schuler was selected in the MLB Draft.

Four players earned All-Horizon League honors and two more players – Daulton Varsho and Adam Reuss – were selected in the MLB Draft in 2017. At pick No. 68, Varsho became the highest-drafted player in program history, as well as the second-highest Horizon League player ever selected when the Arizona Diamondbacks tabbed the All-American junior.

He led the team to 32 victories in 2016, the first back-to-back seasons of 30-plus wins since 2001-02. Picked fourth in the preseason poll, the Panthers finished second behind the efforts of Horizon League Player of the Year Daulton Varsho and Horizon League Pitcher of the Year Brian Keller. Keller went on to be drafted by the New York Yankees. The squad also reset program records for stolen bases and strikeouts by the pitching staff for the second year in a row.

The program enjoyed a record-breaking season in 2015, tying the school record along the way with an impressive total of 39 victories. The team broke records for strikeouts by the staff as well as offensive records that stood the test of time when they reset standards for stolen bases (last established in 2001) and triples (1997). The pitching staff recorded the second-best ERA in program history and the Panthers tied a school mark with 17 wins at home. And it all came in a campaign that ended just one win shy of a trip to the NCAA Tournament, falling in the Horizon League Tournament Championship.

Doffek saw three of his players get selected in the 2015 MLB Draft for the second time in program history when Justin Langley (Miami Marlins/16th round), Sam Koenig (Los Angeles Angels/27th round) and Mitch Ghefl (Milwaukee Brewers/28th round) were all chosen. In addition to the three players drafted, the team also had two more sign professional contracts.

Milwaukee got off to a school-record 10-4 start in 2015, posted its first weekend sweep of an SEC opponent, knocked off a nationally-ranked team for the first time since 2009, threw its first-ever no-hitter and had a conference-high nine players get recognized by the Horizon League with postseason honors.

Milwaukee battled injury and the weather in 2014, finishing with more than 20 victories once again despite all the adversity. The Panthers opened 2014 with four straight home wins, extending a winning streak in Milwaukee to 20 before it was snapped, just one victory away from the school record of 21 wins in a row at home set in 2010.

The Panthers claimed the Horizon League regular-season title in 2013, riding a strong offense that led the league in batting average, slugging percentage, on-base percentage, runs, hits and RBI while also recording the second-best ERA in the conference and the lowest opponent batting average. They went undefeated at home for the first time in program history and ended the season with the longest active winning streak at home (16 games) at the NCAA Division I level.

The team had the Horizon League Player, Pitcher and Newcomer of the Year on its roster and ended the season with the league's leading hitter as well as five of the top 10 batters in the conference. Doffek ended up as the 2013 Horizon League Coach of the Year for his efforts. Then, in the MLB Draft in June, Josh Uhen was selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the fifth round - making him the highest-ever draft choice in program history as well as the fifth player to be selected by a Major League team between 2011 and 2013.

The 2012 campaign saw the Panthers end the regular season on a high note - winning nine of their final 10 games - but were eliminated in the league tournament in extra innings. The pitching staff set a program record with a 3.73 ERA, seven regulars batted over .300 and five players earned Horizon League postseason honors - including three first-team honorees.

Following the season, Doffek saw three of his players chosen in the 2012 Major League Baseball Draft - the first time in program history that more than one Panther was selected - with Jordan Guth (Philadelphia Phillies; ninth round), Eric Semmelhack (Milwaukee Brewers; 12th round) and Paul Hoenecke (Los Angeles Dodgers; 24th round) all hearing their names called on draft day.

The 2010 season was a memorable one, as the team won the Horizon League Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time, winning 25-plus games for the 13th time in 14 years.

The squad had a memorable run to the crown, going 4-1 while riding strong pitching to the championship. The team recorded a 2.66 ERA in the five games, limiting opponents to just a .247 batting average. Eight players earned all-league honors, with Chad Pierce earning the Horizon League Newcomer of the Year award and Cameron Amsrud the Horizon League Relief Pitcher of the Year honor. The team led the league in earned run average and was second in batting, while also setting a school record with 21 wins in a row at home.

Doffek was named Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2009 after leading the Panthers to a second-place finish in the league standings. His team had a league-high four first team all-league selections and set a school record by going 14-1 at home. He won 78 games in his first three seasons, a school record, after already establishing marks for most victories by a first-year head coach (25) and most after his first two seasons (50). He was rewarded with a new three-year contract following the season.

Doffek was named the seventh head coach in the history of the Milwaukee baseball program on Sept. 25, 2006.

Doffek's influence reached a national level in 1999 when Milwaukee upset No. 1 Rice University during the program's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Doffek, along with Jerry Augustine, was named the 1999 Wisconsin Baseball Coaches Association (WBCA) Co-Coach of the Year. In 2001, the Panthers' offense ranked second in the nation after hitting a school-record .352 as a team. Together, Milwaukee saw all 10 regulars bat above .300 and five hit over .350. The team was led by a pair of players that hit over .420, including Scott Gillitzer's then school-record average of .424.

Before joining the coaching staff, Doffek spent five seasons (1989-93) in the Los Angeles Dodgers minor league system, making it to the Triple-A level with the Albuquerque Dukes. Collegately, Doffek played baseball at Waukesha County Community College, where he won the NJCAA batting title after hitting .539 as a sophomore. He was honored as an all-region and all-conference selection. Doffek attended Hartland Arrowhead High School, where he was selected to all-state and all-conference teams. He also played football for three years.

Doffek lives in Menomonee Falls with his wife, Kara, and two children, daughter Kori and son Ty.

CORY BIGLER

ASSISTANT COACH
19th season

Cory Bigler enters his 19th season as an assistant at his alma mater. Bigler serves as Milwaukee's head assistant coach as well as pitching coach. He also assists with recruiting.

Under Bigler, the 2021 pitching staff earned a trio of honors including AJ Blubaugh, who was named Horizon League Reliever of the Year. Blubaugh finished the regular season with a 1.96 ERA, seven saves, and an average of 11.7 strikeouts per nine innings. Additionally, Riley Frey and James Severson were named to the Horizon league All-Freshman team. Frey was the Panthers' Friday starter and had one of the program's best freshman campaigns in recent history while Severson struck out 24 batters in 20.0 innings out of the bullpen.

The 2019 season came to a close with a pair of pitchers earning Horizon league post-season honors. Jake Sommers recorded 10 saves, struck out 37 batters in 30.0 innings and was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the Major League Baseball Draft. Jared Reklaitis set school records with 18 starts and 104 strikeouts. The staff also broke the school record for strikeouts in a season, finishing with 449 (former was 447 set in 2016), as well as establishing a new standard with 18 saves as a team.

Bigler mentored Austin Schulfer through a First-Team All-Horizon League campaign in 2018, topped off by his selection in the MLB Draft. Schulfer broke the career strikeouts record, while both him and Jared Reklaitis set a new mark with 15 strikeouts in a game.

Bigler added another First-Team All-Horizon League selection to his resume in 2017, with Jay Peters finishing second in the league in strikeouts, innings pitched and victories, while also becoming the first hurler in program history to throw four complete games in a row. In addition, the staff broke the school record for most strikeouts in a game, recording 17 against Oakland April 23. That day, Austin Schulfer also tied what was then the single-game record with 13 K's.

Bigler mentored the Horizon League Pitcher of the Year in 2016, with Brian Keller becoming the first-ever Panther to win 10 games in a season while also setting season and career records for strikeouts and innings pitched. The staff reset the season strike-out record for the second year in a row, tied the all-time mark for shutouts and posted the second-most saves in program history. Keller went on to be selected by the New York Yankees in the MLB Draft.

The 2015 season saw a pair of pitchers selected as First-Team All-Horizon League members, marking a first-ever for the Milwaukee program. The team earned run average of 3.93 was just the second sub-4.00 mark and finished second all-time. In addition to Justin Langley and Joe Pavlovich earning first-team honors, Langley was selected by the Miami Marlins in the MLB Draft and the program witnessed its first no-hitter in school history.

The 2013 campaign continued a recent trend, as the team was second in the Horizon League in ERA (first in league-only games), making the past three seasons the top three-lowest ERA's in UWM program history. Bigler mentored the Horizon League Pitcher of the Year in Jake Long, who led the league in victories and also in ERA at 1.73 - the lowest in the league by over a run and the lowest ERA by a starter in program history.

Following the season, Josh Uhen was drafted by the Milwaukee Brewers in the fifth round, making him the highest-drafted player in program history and the fourth UWM pitcher to be taken in the MLB Draft in three years.

The pitching staff continued its dominance in 2012, setting a program record for the second-straight year in the ERA category, with the 3.73 ERA bettering the previous mark by nearly half a run. The staff had the top two leaders in strikeouts and three of the top seven in ERA, with first-team all-league selection Cale Tassi leading the Horizon League at 2.74 - the second-lowest for a starter in program history. In addition, two players - Jordan Guth (Philadelphia Phillies; ninth round) and Eric Semmelhack (Milwaukee Brewers; 12th round) - were selected in the 2012 MLB Draft with Kaleb Engelke also signing a professional contract.

Milwaukee finished second in the league in ERA and was first in strikeouts in 2011, with Chad Pierce earning Horizon League Pitcher of the Year honors. He went on to be selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 2011 MLB Draft. It was a record-breaking season overall for the staff, as the team ERA was the lowest in program history to that point. The strikeout total broke the school record, as did the six shutouts that were thrown in 2011.

The Panthers led the Horizon League in ERA in 2010 and went 4-1 in the league tournament, riding strong pitching to the championship. The team recorded a 2.66 ERA in the five games, limiting opponents to just a .247 batting average.

A three-year letterwinner from 1993-95, Bigler transferred to Milwaukee from UW-Oshkosh, where he played in 1992. At UWM, the righthander posted an 11-8 record, pitching 136.0 innings in 21 starts. Following the 1994 season, Bigler was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 23rd round of the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft. Bigler played two seasons of professional baseball.

In addition to his credentials as a pitching coach, Bigler has also served as the coordinator and instructor of the Bigler Baseball Summer Camps for over 10 years. The Bigler Summer Camps feature instruction on all aspects of the game.

Bigler and his wife, Marci, reside in Brookfield with their three children: daughters Emery and Peyton, and son Brooks.

SHAUN WEGNER

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
5th season

Shaun Wegner was hired as the assistant coach for the Milwaukee baseball team in August of 2017. He was promoted to associate head coach in the summer of 2019.

Wegner arrived at Milwaukee after spending five seasons at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. The NCAA Division III powerhouse claimed Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championships in four of his seasons on staff, compiling an impressive 184-53 overall win-loss record (.776 winning percentage), which included an 88-22 mark (.800) in league play.

Wegner worked as UWM's hitting coach, catching coach, recruiting coordinator and camp coordinator during his tenure with the Warhawks. Included in that span was an appearance in the College World Series in 2015 and the NCAA Division III National Championship in 2014. Each of his seasons at Whitewater culminated with postseason appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

Wegner played baseball at Milwaukee from 2006-10, capping his time with the Panthers by helping the team to the Horizon League Tournament Championship and NCAA Tournament his senior season. He batted .300 that campaign, scoring 26 runs and knocking in 29 more. A team captain for two seasons, Wegner was named to the Horizon League All-Newcomer Team as a freshman and went on to lead the conference in runners thrown out and runners picked off each of his final three years. In 180 career games at UWM, he finished with a .286 average, 87 runs batted in, 101 runs scored and 162 hits.

BRANDON CHINEA

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
1st season

Brandon China joined the Milwaukee baseball staff in December 2021.

China joins the Panthers after most recently playing in the American Association for the Kane County Cougars in the summer of 2021.

The Miami, Florida native finished his collegiate baseball career at Nova Southeastern University after playing two seasons at the University of Tennessee. China hit .369 in his final season, driving in 10 runs while scoring 14 more in 22 games before the year was cut short due to COVID-19 pandemic.

The middle infielder also played one summer in the Northwoods League for the Kokomo Jackrabbits and recorded a .323/.426/.378 slash line with 24 stolen bases in 47 games.

China graduated from Nova Southeastern in 2021 with a degree in Sport Management.

MIKE GOETZ

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
13th season

Mike Goetz returns to the UWM coaching staff for his 12th season in 2021. Goetz now serves as the Director of Baseball Operations following two seasons as the volunteer assistant and his first three years as an assistant coach, where he served as first base coach and worked with the outfielders and baserunning.

Bill Ritter led UWM to four winning seasons in the first era of varsity baseball. Ritter's Panthers put together a stretch of three-straight winning seasons from 1958-60, a feat that UWM would have to wait 38 years to repeat.

Frank Orzel took over for Bill Ritter following the 1970 season. Under Orzel UWM won 12 games in 1971, the most since '62. Orzel's next two seasons saw 15 total wins and the baseball program was dropped at UW-Milwaukee for financial reasons following UWM's 9-16 season in 1973.

CLUB BASEBALL (1982-86)

Jim Burian headed up UWM's club baseball team that he created in the fall of 1981. The team began play in the spring of 1982. Following an 8-10 inaugural season, the Burian-led Panthers posted four-straight winning seasons, culminating with a 27-14 record in the 1986 season.

In five years, the UWM Club Panthers posted an overall record of 81-55-1 (.595).

NEW ERA BEGINS (1987-90)

When UWM's baseball reached varsity status again in 1987, Jim Burian was kept as head coach. Winning ways were harder to keep. After dismal 16-27 and 15-31 records in '87 and '88, the Panthers got back to .500 with a 22-22 record in 1989. The 22 wins were a school record that lasted until 1996. Following UWM's 9-35 (.205) 1990 season, the worst winning percentage in school history (club or varsity), Scott

Kugi replaced Burian as head coach in preparation for Division I competition in 1991.

DIVISION I ERA (1991-Present)

Prior to September of 1990 Milwaukee featured one NCAA Division I team in its men's soccer squad. In 1990 the rest of the athletic teams followed suit and UWM officially became a Division I institution. Like every other team, the baseball team began the newest era as a Division I Independent.

In Scott Kugi's first season as head coach, the Panthers equaled 1990's record-setting futility by posting an identical 9-35 record. Kugi saw his team improve to 14-32 (.304) in 1992, and eventually, to 10-19 (.345) in 1993.

The 1994 season saw Milwaukee enter its first conference and see a new head coach take the reigns. Bill Schufreider took over the Panther head coaching duties for the 1994 season. Schufreider led the Panthers to a 20-30 record and a 9-12 conference record in their only year as a member of the Mid-Continent Conference.

In 1995, MKE had a new conference and a new head coach. Jerry Augustine was named the Panthers' new head coach as they prepared for their first season in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference (MCC). In its first season in the MCC, Milwaukee went 21-24, with a 6-9 record in the MCC West.

The next four years saw an increase in total wins and conference wins in each season. The trend reached its peak when Milwaukee posted its first 30-win season ever in 1998. The Panthers finished 1998 with a 33-15-1 record and a 14-6 mark in the MCC. Success continued into 1999 when Augustine's Panthers won 30 games for the second-straight season and won the school's first-ever conference tournament championship. With the tournament title in hand, MKE earned the MCC's automatic bid for the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. Selected to the Lubbock Regional as the fourth seed, the Panthers turned more heads by knocking off top-ranked Rice in the opening game of the regional.

Milwaukee went 30-24 in 2000 and posted a 12-6 record in the MCC to win its first-ever regular season conference championship. For his team's efforts in its third-straight 30-win season, Augustine was honored as MCC Co-Coach of the Year.

A school-record 39 wins in 2001 was just the tip of the iceberg for the most successful team in the program's history. The 2001 Panthers dominated the MCC with a 16-4 record and swept through the tournament to win their second regular season and tournament championships.

Milwaukee earned an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament and was sent to the South Bend Regional on the campus of the historic University of Notre Dame. Fighting bad weather and lengthy rain delays, the Panthers battled hard against All-Americans and Major League draftees before coming home. In 2001, the squad rewrote the record books by breaking almost every record the school keeps.

HORIZON LEAGUE ERA (2002-Present)

On June 4, 2002, the MCC officially became the Horizon League. UWM started 2002 with a Horizon League Tournament Championship and a trip to NCAA Regionals in Lincoln, Neb. With that precedent, UWM hopes to continue its domination into the next era of Panther baseball and beyond. Since the start of the 2002 season, only UIC has more league victories than Milwaukee. The Panthers just missed another NCAA trip in 2005, 2008 and 2015, falling in the league tournament title game each time.

The team then returned to NCAA postseason action in 2010, falling in a close game to No. 1 Arizona State on its home field in the NCAA Regional opener after going 4-1 at the league tournament, beating Wright State for the crown. Three years later, the Panthers would claim their first regular-season championship since 2001 during the 2013 campaign, sweeping all three games in the final home series of the year to win it all and earn the title.

Milwaukee tied the school record with 39 victories in 2015 and won 32 more games the next spring. The Panthers finished second in the regular season title chase in 2019 and nearly made a return trip to the NCAA's - falling by a single run in the Horizon League Tournament title game.

The 2021 marked the inaugural season at the Panthers' new ballpark, Franklin Field. The team was set to play in 2020 before the season was canceled due to COVID-19. Prior to that, Milwaukee spent 26 seasons at Henry Aaron Field at Lincoln Park. The Panthers played at Simmons Field in 1992 and 1993 and a variety of home sites in 1991.

Franklin Field, dubbed "The Frank" by those close to Milwaukee baseball, is also home to the Milwaukee Milkmen of the American Association of Professional Baseball. The stadium holds 4,000 fans and stretches to 330 feet down both left and right field lines while measuring 408 in center field.

Milwaukee has had plenty of success at home including an impressive 294-126 record at Henry Aaron Field, affectionately referred to as "The Hank." The Panthers opened Franklin Field with a four-game sweep of Purdue Fort Wayne on their way to 12 home victories, marking the 21st season with double-digit victories on their home field.

Through a marketing agreement between the University and the Brewers, Milwaukee has hosted 18 games at American Family Field, formerly Miller Park, in the last 20 seasons.

Milwaukee has done the most with its opportunities, posting an 18-11 record at the major league park.

Note: This chart represents the Milwaukee Panthers players who were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft and went on to play professionally as well.
