

University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee
Bud K. Haidet Athletic Hall of Fame
Call for Nominations

Primary Purpose of the Hall

The primary purpose of the Bud K. Haidet Athletics Hall of Fame is to give lasting recognition to outstanding individuals who have brought honor to or who have contributed to the promotion and development of UWM Intercollegiate Athletics.

Who Can Nominate Candidates and the Procedure

All UWM alumni, faculty, and staff are eligible to nominate individuals for induction into the Hall. Nominations may be made by submitting this form or by sending a letter or e-mail to the committee that contains the same basic form information. Nominees not elected when first nominated shall be eligible for election for the next five years without re-nomination.

Criteria for Hall of Fame Induction

UWM alumni who last competed in a UWM sport five or more years prior to induction shall be eligible for induction into the Hall based on the individuals athletic prowess, good moral character, and civic contributions.

UWM administrators and coaches will be immediately eligible for induction into the UWM Hall of Fame after serving in that capacity based on administrative or coaching excellence, good moral character, and civic contributions.
