

Athletes and Northwestern Mutual

AS A COLLEGE ATHLETE...

You embrace challenge.

Nearly half our former student-athletes competed for Division 1 teams.

You have determination.

It's one thing to meet challenge, but as an athlete, you pursue it, crave it, and use it to make you better every day. You understand that once you reach a certain level of excellence, the smallest improvement can reap huge rewards.

You have passion for what you do.

You've been there ... lived it. Shooting free throws long after the gym has gone dark. Running sprints when the others have left the field. One more rep. One more walk-through. One more drill. Determination means never giving up. You know that. And we know that.

You want to succeed.

You can have the skills. You can have the work ethic. But if you don't love what you do, you won't achieve your ultimate goal. We seek out former college athletes because we know you won't pursue any endeavor without bringing your complete commitment to the cause, and with it, a passion that burns inside you.
