Informational Releases

The sports information office produces game notes for every cross country and track & field meet. To be added to an electronic mailing list for prompt delivery of those releases to your home or office computer, contact Tim Prah. Those releases are also available online at MKEPanthers.com.

Credential Requests

All requests for media credentials for Milwaukee home meets should be made to Tim Prah in the Milwaukee Sports Information office as early as possible.

Interviews

Head coach Pete Corfeld and members of the cross country and track & field teams are available to the media on a regular basis following practice. Due to the large nature of the teams, practices take place in a wide range of times. Arrangements for phone interviews can also be made, but should be through the communications office. Requests for interviews on meet days must be made in advance.

Follow Along

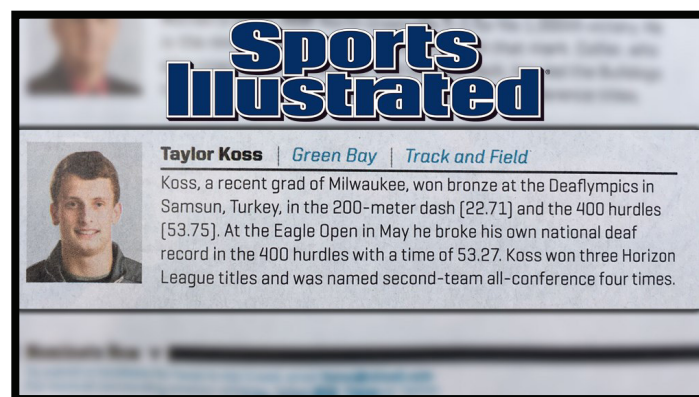

The Panthers consistently provide all up-to-date information on the team's twitter account - @MKE_TFXC. Follow along for behind the scenes photos, meet information and updates, live results and much more.

It's "Milwaukee"

A lot has been made of the correct way to talk about the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, especially in the area of athletics. It would be appreciated if you would refer to the athletics teams as either "Milwaukee" or "UWM". Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Milwaukee Athletics is making an effort to brand itself as "Milwaukee" instead of other references. Please avoid UW-Milwaukee, UW-M, Wisc.-Mil, UW-MIL, Wisconsin-Milwaukee, etc. We appreciate your assistance with this effort in advance.

Additionally, please refrain from any "lady Panther" references. All Milwaukee women's sports are still simply referred to as the Panthers.

Taylor Koss is the latest Panther featured as one of Sports Illustrated's their "Faces In The Crowd", seeing his name printed in the national publication in the Oct. 9 issue. SI recognized Koss for his tremendous efforts on the track over the last few months, including his efforts with Team USA at the 2017 Deaflympic Games this past July in Samsun, Turkey.

PETE CORFELD

HEAD COACH

29TH SEASON

MILWAUKEE '86

Entering his 29th season as the head coach for the Milwaukee men's and women's cross country and track and field programs, Pete Corfeld continues to make his mark as one of the most successful coaches Milwaukee has ever seen.

Corfeld has guided his teams to 48 league indoor and outdoor track & field titles and three cross country crowns. His 51 league titles are by far more than any other coach in school history.

The 2016-17 season once again saw incredible heights for the Panther program, again competing at the highest levels the sport has to offer with two more All-American honors achieved throughout the year. That runs the total to five All-Americans over just the last two seasons - the most in that short of a span in program history.

Nate Pozolinski stole most of the headlines throughout the year, establishing himself as the most consistent hurdler in the nation with 10 finishes at 13.80 seconds or faster in the 110m hurdles. He finished Second Team All-American in both the 60m hurdles and the 110m hurdles to make it four straight trips to the NCAA Championships for the Black & Gold.

Corfeld also helped coach yet another Horizon League Athlete of the Year in Melissa Kirchoff - the 15th such honor between indoor and outdoor track and field in program history.

More records fell as senior Taylor Koss - who grabbed national headlines early in the season - broke the American and Collegiate Deaf Record in the 400m hurdles. Koss also brought home a pair of Bronze Medals for Team USA at the 2017 Deaflympics, placing third in both the 400m hurdles and the 200m in Samsun, Turkey.

As a team, Milwaukee racked up another 30 all-league finishes between indoor and outdoor at the Horizon League Championships, bringing home yet another team trophy with a runner-up finish in women's indoor.

That came on the heels of one of an incredible 2015-16 season that brought highs never before seen for Milwaukee at the D-I level, with UWM earning three All-American honors throughout the year. The Panthers also brought home three more league trophies with runner-up finishes on the men's side during both the indoor and outdoor seasons, and a second-place finish by the women's outdoor squad.

In all, Corfeld's teams put together quite a remarkable list of accomplishments that year:

- The Horizon League Male Coleman Medal of Honor Recipient
- 3 NCAA All-American Awards

- 2 Horizon League Athlete of the Year Awards
- The Horizon League Women's Cross Country Individual Champion
- 3 Horizon League Team Trophies
- 7 NCAA Regional Qualifiers
- 21 Horizon League Individual Championships
- 14 School Records
- 27 Horizon League Athlete of the Week Awards

It started in the fall with Leah Holmes winning the individual league championship at the Horizon League cross country meet - the second-straight year Milwaukee has boasted the best cross country runner in the conference.

That success carried over into track and field, where Holmes again was named Horizon League Athlete of the Year. Things didn't stop there, though. Senior high jumper Brett Pozolinski earned a trip to the NCAA Indoor Championships - the first time a Panther has qualified for that elite meet since Cory Peterson's three-year run in the late 1990's. Pozolinski finished tied for fifth - well above his 14th-place seeding - to be named First-Team All American.

Pozolinski continued that run to a spot at the NCAA Outdoor Championships in June, becoming the first Panther to qualify for both national meets in the same year since moving to the D-I ranks. Not only that, junior brother Nate Pozolinski also earned a trip to the National Championships in the 110m hurdles. Brett came in 10th in high jump and Nate claimed 22nd in the sprint hurdles, giving UWM three All Americans in the same season.

While a few big names stole most of the headlines in 2016, the rest of the team was not far behind. Milwaukee sent seven individuals to the NCAA West Regional - the most since they changed their qualifying standards. The team also broke an incredible 14 school records throughout the season - the most since the 17 toppled by the special 2007 squad. UWM also won three team trophies at the league championships, taking runner-up on the men's side during the indoor season, as well as on both sides in outdoor.

The year closed out in the summer with one of Corfeld's assistants nearly punching his ticket to Rio for the Olympic Games. Garrett Huyler competed in the U.S. Olympic Trials in high jump to close out a truly remarkable year for Corfeld's teams.

2014-15 was another memorable year for Corfeld, earning team trophies in all six sports. Men's track & field continued its winning ways, taking home both the indoor and outdoor league titles for the 14th time in 18 years. Women's track & field posted runner-up finishes at both meets, finishing a combined nine points shy of two league crowns.

In cross country, Marcus Paulson brought home the individual title by leading the field from start to finish. He helped the men to a second place showing overall, their best finish since 1996. The Panther women also came in league runners-up, marking the first time they earned a league trophy since 2008.

Individually, Panther athletes had another banner year in 2014-15. The program accumulated an impressive 27 individual championships over the indoor and outdoor seasons.

Corfeld's teams continue to excell in the classroom. Nate and Brett Pozolinski were named the male recipient of the Horizon League Coleman Medal of Honor each of the last two seasons; the league's top honor for student-athletes demonstrating outstanding achievement in academics, athletics and extracurricular activities. That marks the ninth and 10th times a Milwaukee student-athlete has received that award, with five of those coming from Corfeld's program.

The cross country and track & field teams also once again had multiple recipients on the fall, winter and spring league all-academic teams. In addition, both men's track & field and cross country posted perfect APR scores in the most recent NCAA report for the second-straight year and two Panthers were named to the All-Academic Track & Field Team.

Historically, Milwaukee has swept all four track league titles in one season four times, most recently in 2011. UWM also claimed all four track championships in 2001, 2007 and 2010.

Both teams have been dominant in their success as four times a Panther team has won a league meet by over 100 points. The program holds league records on both the men's and women's sides for points in an outdoor championship and margin of victory. In 2003, UWM won the women's title with 252 points, 171 ahead of second place. Two years later, it was the men that tallied 231 points, outpacing second place by 120.

Corfeld has been recognized for his success many times over, garnering League Coach of the Year honors 51 times in his career. He has coached 15 league athletes of the year and 90 outstanding performer and newcomer of the year recipients. Tenia Fisher (2003-06) was just the second athlete in league history, in any sport, to be recognized as athlete of the year three times in one sport (indoor track).

Corfeld works primarily with the middle distance and distance groups in addition to the cross country squads. UWM had the 10th-fastest 4x800m relay in the country in 2005, with the quartet posting a school-record time of 7:26.17.

Corfeld's cross country program has produced 82 all-league performers since the Panthers entered a conference for the 1992 season, including two more in 2017. He has also coached four individual champions and four newcomer of the year honorees, with freshman Mikayla Fox receiving the award on the women's side just over a year ago.

In 2015, Leah Holmes won the individual title - the second for Milwaukee in a two-year span. She joined Marcus Paulson, who helped UWM to a second-place finish in 2014 by just two points. That year, the Panthers had four runners earn all-league honors on the men's side, including league champ Paulson. The UWM women also finished second that season, boasting two on the all-league teams.

That marked the best finish for the Milwaukee women since taking second in back-to-back years in both 2007 and 2008. Also during that two-year stretch, the Panther women had four representatives on the all-league rosters. For the 2008 team, three of those all-league awards were first-team honors. In 2007, all-league first-teamer Holly Nearman took 12th at the NCAA Great Lakes Regional for all-region honors. It was the highest finish at a Division I regional by a Panther ever. Also in 2007, Corfeld was also named league coach of the year - the first time in league history the award went to the second-place team coach.

Despite not winning a cross country championship since leaving the Mid-Continent Conference, UWM has continually performed in the upper half of the league standings. After winning a women's crown in 1992 and both the men's and women's championships in 1993, Milwaukee has boasted three men's league individual champions, while rarely finishing below fourth.

Corfeld, the longest-tenured coach currently at UWM, has built well-respected track and field and cross country teams that consistently compete with other schools across the league, region and country.

Under his direction, nine student-athletes have qualified for the NCAA Championships 15 different times. Brett Pozolinski, Nate Pozolinski, Durell Busby, Samia Taylor, Nick Gretz, Tim Kenney, Cory Peterson and Angie Molter all competed at the NCAA Track and Field Championships, while Chad Zehms was a qualifier in the NCAA Cross Country Championships in 1995. Peterson, who was joined by Nate Pozolinski as one of just two three-time All-Americans, also qualified for the U.S. Olympic Trials in the 800m run in 1996 and placing third in the 800m at the USATF Indoor Championships. Molter was the first UWM female to compete in the NCAA Division I Championships, running the 10,000m in 1996.

The Pozolinski brothers are the latest Panthers to earn trips to the NCAA Championship. Nate capped off an incredible four-year career as a three-time All-American after taking 13th (2017) and 22nd (2016) in the 110m hurdles and 14th (2017) in the 60m hurdles. Older brother Brett finished as a First-Team All-American in indoor high jump in 2016, tying for fifth, before a 10th-place, Second-Team All-American finish in the same event at outdoor nationals.

Nate Pozolinski's back-to-back trips to the NCAA Meet in the 110m hurdles marks the fourth by a Panther in the last six years in that event, joining Busby. In 2014, Busby finished First-Team All-American by taking seventh overall in the 110m hurdles. That result marked the first time Milwaukee scored as a team at outdoor nationals.

Busby also went on to represent the Black & Gold on the international level, earning a spot at the prestigious Commonwealth Games for his home nation of Trinidad & Tobago.

Corfeld's athletes have also excelled off the track, as Nate Pozolinski earned the Horizon League's prestigious Coleman Medal of Honor in 2017. He was the program's fifth recipient of the honor after Brett Pozolinski in 2016, Josh Nygren in 2006, Jonathan Manke in 2002 and Paul McGinley in 2000.

Corfeld's coaching career began at St. Mary's Academy in 1980. Three years later he became the head track and field coach at Milwaukee Area Technical College. At MATC, he was named Region XIII and conference coach of the year three times. Corfeld graduated from UWM in 1986 with a bachelor's degree in science. He was then named assistant coach for sprints, hurdles and relays at Northern Colorado, where he also worked on a master's degree. In 1989, after completing his degree, he was named the head cross country and track and field coach at UWM. Since taking over the Panther track program, Corfeld has helped to elevate UWM to a regional and national program.

Corfeld and his wife, Linda, reside in Whitefish Bay, Wis.

NCAA Qualifiers Under Corfeld

UWM has had a rich history of producing NCAA Qualifiers during the tenure of coach Pete Corfeld. The Panthers have had nine NCAA Qualifiers and one U.S. Olympic Trials qualifier under Corfeld's instruction.

ERIC KRAMER

ASSISTANT • 6TH SEASON

ST. JOSEPH'S '07

SPRINTS • HURDLES • JUMPS

Eric Kramer enters his sixth season as assistant coach for the Milwaukee men's and women's track & field teams heading into the 2018 season.

In his first five seasons with Milwaukee, Kramer helped UWM bring home 13 team trophies, including four Horizon League Championships. Also, Panther student-athletes have produced an impressive 99 Horizon League individual titles in his first five years on campus.

Kramer has helped Milwaukee reach new heights on the national level, bringing home five All-American honors over the past two seasons - the most over a two-year span in program history. That culminated with Nate Pozolinski being named Second Team All-American in both the 60m hurdles and 110m hurdles just last year. In fact, Pozolinski was arguably the most consistent hurdler in the nation in 2017, clocking in at 13.80 seconds or faster in the 110m hurdles 10 times during the season - a feat no one else in the nation achieved.

Pozolinski's ascent to the top of the sport was impressive, starting his collegiate career with a time of 15.28 in the 110m hurdles and graduating tied for the school record in 13.56 and as a three-time All-American.

As a team, Milwaukee continued to push forward in 2017. Despite being one of the youngest teams in the conference, Kramer helped the Panthers bring home the runner-up trophy during the women's indoor season and saw his athletes earn nine Horizon League Athlete of the Week honors throughout the season.

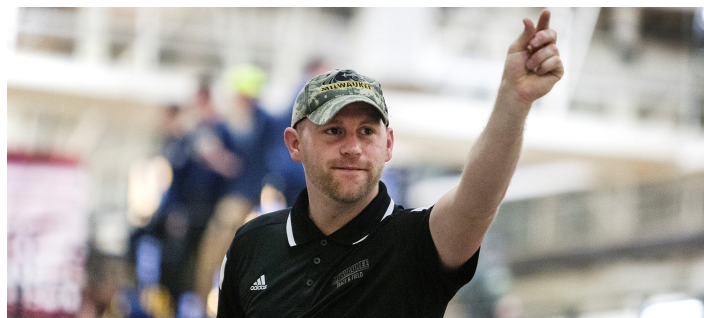

That came one year after the Panthers sent three to the NCAA Championships. The Panthers also sent seven individuals to the NCAA West Regional meet that year - the most since the NCAA changed its qualifying standards.

The honors did not stop as Milwaukee claimed an incredible 23 league athlete of the week honors two years ago.

UWM also broke 14 school records in 2016 - the most since 17 records were toppled back by the 2007 squad.

In all, Kramer has reached some coached an impressive list of accomplishments with Milwaukee:

- UWM has qualified for the NCAA Championships seven times in Kramer's first five years.
- Also on the national level, the Panthers won the 4x110m shuttle hurdle relay at the storied Drake Relays in both 2013 and 2014
- In the six hurdle events, UWM has now claimed 14 of the possible 30 league titles and placed a whopping 59 individuals on the podium in those 30 events over the last five years.
- Marquis Johnson earned Junior All-American status after a seventh-place finish at the USA Outdoor Track & Field Championships in 2012.

Kramer's teams have also excelled in the classroom. Each of two years, Milwaukee track & field has put forth the recipient of the prestigious Cecil L. Coleman Award - the highest honor in the Horizon League. Nate Pozolinski earned that impressive honor in 2017, one year after Brett Pozolinski capped his career with the same distinction that combines athletics, academics and extra curricular activities.

His teams have also earned special recognition each of the last two years from the NCAA for their academic work, finishing with an APR score in the top-10 percent in 2017, one year after a perfect APR score in men's track and field in 2016.

Kramer also has an impressive list of coaching certifications from the USTFCCA:

- Program Management Certification
- Sprint, Hurdle, & Relay Specialist Certification
- Jumping Event Specialist Certification
- Strength & Conditioning Certification
- Hurdle Master Coach Endorsement (one of only 13 in country)

Kramer came to Milwaukee after spending the 2012 season at Franklin College, helping lead the Grizzlies to impressive heights. The team posted six school records between the sprint, hurdle and jump events that Kramer coached. He also served as the meet director for the inaugural Indiana D-III Championships and the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference Championship meet.

Kramer started out his coaching career at Franklin from 2007-2009, quickly becoming an integral part of the coaching staff. In that time, he helped coach the team to the conference indoor title. He also coached two HCAC Most Valuable Track Athlete of the Year winners and two Academic All-Americans. Additionally, he also guided the school to their first-ever men's and women's cross country league championship titles, including having one men's national qualifier.

In between, Kramer spent two years at Lake Erie College where he helped send numerous student-athletes to the NCAA D-II Championships and produced 11 All-Americans and an outstanding 31 school records. Kramer also helped coach the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Outdoor Track Athlete of the Year.

JAKE REILLY

ASSISTANT • 4TH SEASON

MILWAUKEE '14

DISTANCE

Jake Reilly enters his fourth season as the top assistant coach for the Milwaukee cross country teams. That comes after one year helping coach the team as a student assistant while completing his track & field eligibility.

In his first three full seasons, Reilly has helped guide UWM to new heights. The men's distance program racked up an impressive 56 points at the Horizon League Championships between indoor and outdoor. That feat was highlighted with Milwaukee runners nearly completing a sweep of the medals in the outdoor 800m, taking second, third and fourth overall in an incredible photo finish. In fact, four more Panthers scored in the women's 800m, giving Milwaukee seven scorers in the event and a total of 35 points - nearly half of the total possible.

In 2015, Leah Holmes finished as the Horizon League Cross Country Runner of the Year on the women's side - the second-straight year the Panthers have boasted the league's top runner. Holmes' title was the first ever for a Panther woman at the league meet. Holmes also was named Horizon League Athlete of the Year in both cross country and indoor track & field that season.

That came on the heels of a truly memorable 2014 season that saw both the men's and women's cross country teams finished second overall at the Horizon League Championships - the highest combined finish for both programs since 1996.

Reilly coached Marcus Paulson to an individual league title - the first individual men's title in nearly 20 years. Three more earned all-league honors on the men's side as UWM finished with 59 points - a mere two points shy of a league title.

The Panther women also finished league runners-up, doing so for the first time since back-to-back second-place finishes in 2007 and 2008. Sophomore Leah Holmes and senior Annette Lemanski both earned all-league honors to help pace UWM.

At the 2014 NCAA Midwest Regional, Milwaukee had two finish in the top-65 for the first time since 1997. Paulson finished 57th and Caleb Abfall 64th to help the team to a 15th-place finish out of 30 teams.

Reilly had a stellar running career at Milwaukee. In cross country, he scored at the league meet all four years, highlighted by a pair of first-team all-league finishes (fourth place as a junior, third as a senior). He also had a standout career on the track, taking second-team all-league honors in the outdoor 5000m as a junior. In all, Reilly scored at the league meet nine times in track across three different events (1500m, 3000m and 5k). He graduated with his name on five all-time top-10 performance lists in program history, including being part of the school record in the outdoor DMR and second all-time in the outdoor 5000m.

Reilly also serves his country as a member of the United States Marine Corps Reserves.

JOE BRUNNER

ASSISTANT • 3RD SEASON

UW-OSHKOSH '14

THROWS

Joe Brunner joined the Milwaukee track & field coaching staff in the fall of 2015 and specializes in coaching throws for the Panthers.

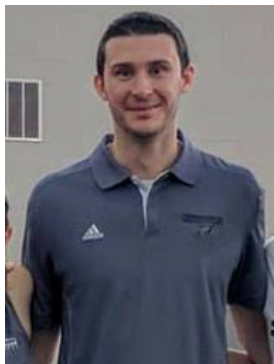

In just two seasons with the Panthers, he has already made a big impact. At the Horizon League Championships, Milwaukee placed on the podium 41 times in the five throwing events between indoor and outdoor over the past two years. In fact, at the outdoor championships alone, the Panthers won a pair of league titles and finished runner-up five more times.

Also on his watch, Silas Petrie qualified for the NCAA West Regional in hammer throw. Additionally, Panther throwers were named league athletes of the week five times since he joined the coaching staff.

The Panther record board has also changed quite a bit since Brunner came to campus, with three top marks already reset since 2015.

Brunner brings a wealth of experience in throws to UWM. A standout in college at UW-Oshkosh, he earned All-American honors in 35 lb. weight throw.

Additionally, Brunner qualified for nationals three times for the Titans and won a conference title in hammer throw in the highly competitive Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

GARRETT HUYLER

ASSISTANT • 7TH SEASON

CORNELL '09

HIGH JUMP

Garrett Huyler (pronounced HIGH-ler) joined the Milwaukee track & field coaching staff in the fall of 2010. Since he came aboard, he has done nothing but continue the rich Panther tradition, helping UWM win a total of 11 Horizon League team titles in that time.

Working specifically with high jumpers, Huyler has seen incredible success from his student-athletes. Milwaukee high jumpers have won an outstanding nine league titles and another 12 second-team all-league finishes in his six years with the program.

With a very young group in 2017, Huyler once again showed his coaching capabilities by guiding the youthful squad to outstanding showings at the Horizon League Championships. Milwaukee took up 12 spots on the podium between men and women, indoor and outdoor at the 2017 league championships, headlined by a league title by Jason Hanson in just his freshman year. Even more impressive, at the outdoor league meet, Milwaukee high jumpers scored 38.5 points, equaling the total of all other schools combined.

2016 was a banner year for Milwaukee high jumpers. Senior Brett Pozolinski qualified for both the indoor and outdoor NCAA Championships, becoming the first-ever Panther to do so in the D-I era. Pozolinski finished tied for fifth at indoor nationals and was 10th at Track Town in Eugene, Ore. at the outdoor championships to claim All-American honors at both meets.

Huyler also coached Laura Hamel to the NCAA West Regionals in 2012, and has coached three school record holders.

While coaching, Huyler has also continued his professional jumping career, competing at a variety of national events. He has represented the U.S. in international competitions in seven different foreign countries and boasts personal bests of 2.25m (7-4 1/2) in outdoor and 2.24m (6-4 1/4) in indoor. His competition reached its pinnacle in the summer of 2016, qualifying for the U.S. Olympic Trials in Eugene, Ore., just missing a berth to the Rio Olympics.

Huyler comes to Milwaukee after four outstanding years at Ivy-League power Cornell University. During his time at Cornell, the team captain helped the Big Red win seven of the possible eight conference titles and was a First-Team All-American high jumper after finishing eighth at the 2009 NCAA Outdoor Championships. He also won three individual league titles and graduated with both indoor and outdoor school records to his name.

Huyler and his wife, Kelly, live in Oak Creek.

ZACH SCHMIDT

ASSISTANT • 2ND SEASON

UW-OSHKOSH '14

POLE VAULT • JUMPS

Zachary Schmidt joined the Milwaukee track & field team in the fall of 2016. Schmidt joins the Panthers after a successful career at UW-Oshkosh.

He will work primarily with pole vaulters, as well as the long and triple jump groups.

In just his first year, Schmidt helped coach the first men's indoor pole vault champion for Milwaukee since 2013 in Nate Scherer. The sophomore cleared a PR height at the conference meet to bring home his first league title.

Milwaukee has a rich history of All-Americans from the origins of the program. Our records prior to our jump to Division I in 1990 are incomplete. On these pages is the most comprehensive list of Panther All-Americans compiled, dating back to 1981. Corrections and additions to this list are welcome in the UWM Sports Information office and can be directed to Assistant Sports Information Director Tim Prael at tdprahl@uwm.edu. We will look to provide a complete list on our website, MKEPanthers.com, and in future editions of the Milwaukee Track & Field Media Guide.

Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference

Like a majority of the schools in the University of Wisconsin System, Milwaukee spent time in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC).

The University began competition in the Wisconsin Normal Conference in 1913, with records indicating the men's team had won the inaugural track & field championships in 1915.

The conference, as well as member institutions underwent multiple name changes, eventually becoming the Wisconsin State University Conference (WSUC). UWM left the WSUC in 1964.

Records indicate the Milwaukee women competed in the Women's WIAC (WWIAC) from 1976 until 1984. The conference instituted an indoor league meet beginning in 1977.

In 1997, the WSUC and WWIAC merged to form the co-ed WIAC.

Men's WSUC Championships

The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee is on record as having won 33 WSUC Outdoor Championships in the 46 years between 1915 and 1964. The Green Gulls, as was the school's nickname from 1927-56, won 26-straight titles from 1928-53. There were no championship meets for four years during World War II from 1943-46.
